

Southeast Asia Politics Research Development Group (RDG)

Wednesday, September 4, 2024 – Marriott, Franklin 4

8:45 – 9:00	Participants arrive
9:00 – 9:30	Greetings, introductions, and agenda review	Samantha Wirth, Risa Toha, Nina McMurry, Paul Schuler
9:30 – 10:10	Sirima Thongsawang, “The politics of aging: Rural older farmers in Thailand”	Discussant: Petra Hendrickson
10:10 – 10:50	Attawat Assavanadda, “Ethnic Chinese Identity and Reception of China’s Public Diplomacy in Thailand”	Discussant: Kai Ostwald
10:50 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 11:40	Tuan-Ngoc Phan, “Political Corruption Cycles: Disentangling Extractive and Rent-Seeking Corruption”	Discussant: Paul Schuler
11:40 – 12:20	Talitha Chairunissa, “The Conundrum of Fairness: The Political Economy of the Village Fund Allocation”	Discussant: Steven Oliver
12:20 – 2:20	Hosted lunch - McCormick & Schmick's Seafood & Steaks (for authors, discussants, and facilitators) 1 S Broad St, Philadelphia, PA 19107
2:20 – 3:00	Margareth Sembiring, “Critical Geopolitics of Global Environmental Norms: Exploring Indonesia’s Response to Climate Mitigation Agenda”	Discussant: Risa Toha
3:00 – 3:40	Karin Codiase Bangsoy, “Dual Dimensions: Understanding Indigenous Autonomy in Southeast Asia”	Discussant: Nina McMurry
3:40 – 3:50	Break
3:50 – 5:00	Roundtable: Networking, Conferences, and Tips for making the most out of APSA	All

Paper discussion format:

- 5 mins author introduction: Authors should use this time to introduce the paper and provide context for their research, reminding others what theory/literature the research speaks to, describe stage of completion and next steps;
- 30 mins group comments: The primary discussant will lead with their comments followed by feedback from other attendees; Authors may reply to any direct clarifying questions but should primarily listen and take notes in order to receive as much feedback as possible;
- 5 mins author comments/questions